

Air 1 serves me by providing family friendly and uplifting news and music. The loss of Air 1 in my local community would eliminate a commercial free family friendly source of information and entertainment. The public is served by Air 1 because it provides light and hope in a often hopeless and dark world.